

Alcohol-related attitudes

Results from the 2018 Health and Lifestyles Survey

Around half of people agree that:

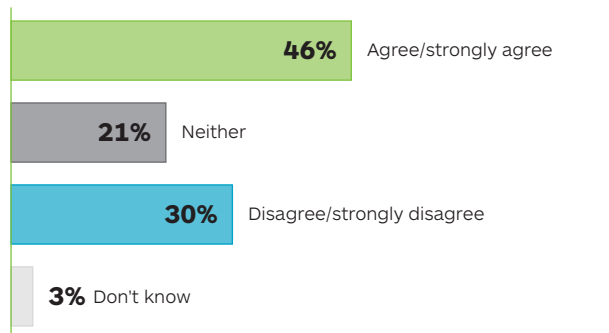

Supermarkets, bottle shops and convenience stores should stop selling alcohol after 9pm (55%)

The price of very cheap alcohol should be raised (46%)

Alcohol sponsorship should not be allowed at sporting events (46%)

More likely to agree or strongly agree with these statements:

Women

People aged 45 to 64

People born overseas

Non-drinkers and people who don't drink heavily

Notes:

1. People who don't drink heavily drank no more than four (for women) or five standard drinks (for men) on a single occasion in the last week.
2. The Health and Lifestyles Survey (HLS) is a cross-sectional survey conducted every two years with a nationally representative sample of New Zealanders aged 15+.
More information on the survey can be found on HPA's website: <https://www.hpa.org.nz/research-library/research-publications/2018-health-and-lifestyles-survey-methodology-report>
